

EVENTO ORGANIZZATO DA

Dipartimento dell'educazione,
della cultura e dello sport

University of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Switzerland

SUPSI

Open Data and Open Maps for Heritage Protection

21st February 2020, Castelgrande Bellinzona

PROGRAM

9.00-9.30 Registration and welcome coffee

9.30 Introduction

Welcome Roland Hochstrasser, Head of the Cultural observatory of Ticino, Department of Education, Culture and Sport of Ticino Canton

Welcome project Cheers. Cultural HERitagE. Risks and Securing activities

Introduction, Iolanda Pensa, Head of the research area "Culture and Territory, Laboratory of visual culture, Department for Environment, Constructions and Design - University of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Switzerland, SUPSI

Current situation - The Available Data and Maps about Heritage, Hazards and Risks for Heritage Protection

10.00-10.30 Keynotes

John Andersson, Wikimedia Sweden

Data about heritage: Wikipedia, Wikidata and Wiki Loves Monuments

10.30-11.00 Keynotes

François Robida, Information Systems and Technologies at BRGM /French geological survey

Available data, maps and tools and how they can be improved through the concept of FAIR data (data which are findable, accessible, interoperable and reusable)

11.00-11.30 Break

11.30-12.30 Roundtable and discussion with a focus on the current inventories and data available in Switzerland.

Among the participants in the discussion

Beat Estermann, Deputy Head of the Institute for Public Sector Transformation, Data & Infrastructure unit, Bern University of Applied Sciences; board member of the Opendata.ch association and founder of its OpenGLAM working group; organizer of the annual Swiss Open Cultural Data Hackathon

Giulia Boub, Observatory of territorial development (OST Osservatorio dello sviluppo territoriale), Academy of Architecture Mendrisio, Università della Svizzera italiana

Moderator: Massimiliano Cannata

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch

Scenarios - Interoperability and Use of Data and Maps about Heritage and Natural Hazards for Heritage Protection

14.00-14.30 Keynote

Alison Heritage, ICCROM - What can data and maps do for the protection of heritage?

14.30 - 15.30 Roundtable and discussion with a focus on the use of data for heritage protection and the role of citizens (self-protection, enriching data, monitoring sites...).

Among the participants in the discussion

Federico Morando, fellow of the Centre Nexa for Internet and Society at Politecnico di Torino, public lead of Creative Commons Italia (2012-2018), founder of the start-up Synapta focussed on linked open data
Francesco Panella, European Commission, DG Joint Research Centre, Monitoring, Indicators & Impact Evaluation

Lorenzo Losa, president of Wikimedia Italia

Ilario Valdelli and Catrin Vimercati, Wikimedia CH

Moderator: Marco Pregolato

15.30-16.00

Rapporteur: Christian Iasio, BRGM - Bureau de Recherches Géologiques et Minières

Conclusions

Participants

[Please note that all participants are involved as discussants (by asking questions and contributing to the discussions, by adding content to an etherpad or other tool, or by adding content to some printed templates)]

Lorenzo Losa, Wikimedia Italia

Catrin Vimercati, Wikimedia CH, Associazione InFormAzioni and Wikipedia and OSM volunteer

Ilario Valdelli, Wikimedia CH

Anna Rosati, OpenStreetMap volunteer

Christian Iasio, BRGM - Bureau de Recherches Géologiques et Minières

Martin Jung, AIT Austrian Institute of Technology GmbH

Cecilie Foldal, Austrian Research Centre for Forests

Philippe Méresse, Firefighter officer; director of the new technology hub Valabre, France; former Civil protection and emergency management officer

David Stäblein, Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society, Munich, Germany

Marco Pregolato, Research centre for the environment and sustainable development of Lombardy Region, Catholic University of Brescia

Stefano Oliveri, Research centre for the environment and sustainable development of Lombardy Region, Catholic University of Brescia; president of Ecometrics srl.

Giulia Pesaro, Economist and PhD in Public Policies and Territorial Planning, Project Manager of the EU funded project CHEERS "Cultural HERitagE. Risks and Securing activities" (Interreg ALPINE SPACE 2018-2021) on behalf of Fondazione Lombardia per l'Ambiente

Maria Chiara Minciaroni, Touring Club Italiano

Christoph Hütterer, Federal Monuments Authority Austria

Christian Kropfitsch, Joint Commission of Austrian Academy & Federal Ministry of Defense

Elena Marchiori, City council Lugano

Lorenzo Sonognini, former director of Monte Verità; president of the ethnographic museum of Val Verzasca; COO Zardi Ricerche SA; founder Sonognini Partner

Anna Picco Schwendener, USI, Faculty of Communication Sciences

Cristian Scapozza, SUPSI, Institute of Earth Sciences

Giacinta Jean, SUPSI, Conservation and restoration

Francesca Piqué, SUPSI, Conservation and restoration

Giulio Zaccarelli, SUPSI, Conservation and restoration with a focus on the management of deposits and the method Re-Org

Vanessa De Luca, SUPSI, Laboratory of Visual Culture

Simone Garlandini, Geografo indipendente, Locarno

Giorgio Dall'Osso, PhD student at Università di Bologna, Dipartimento di Architettura

Chiara Bramani, Consultati SA, Lugano

Diana Tenconi, AMET, curator of the Museo Etnografico di Leventina
Marco Genasci, Repubblica e Cantone Ticino
Rachele Longhitano, Repubblica e Canton Ticino, Dipartimento del Territorio
Angelo Muscionico, Olympic Museum, Lausanne

Credits

A conference organised by the Laboratory of Visual Culture with the Institute of Earth Sciences (Department for Environment, Constructions and Design - University of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Switzerland, SUPSI) in collaboration with the Sistema per la valorizzazione del patrimonio culturale (SVPC-DECS) del Cantone Ticino in the frame of the project Cheers. Cultural HERitagE. Risks and Securing activities (ASP693) co-financed by the Interreg VB Alpine Space Programme through the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF).

Chairs: Iolanda Pensa and Roland Hochstrasser

Coordinator: Marta Pucciarelli

With the support of Cristian Scapozza, Massimiliano Cannata, Giulio Zaccarelli (SUPSI) and Christian Iasio (BRGM - Bureau de Recherches Géologiques et Minières). With the collaboration of Organizzazione turistica regionale (OTR).

INFO

Time: 9.30am - 4.00pm

Language: English

Location: Castelgrande Bellinzona, Switzerland

Specific address: Salita al Castelgrande, 6500 Bellinzona, Svizzera (elevator from Piazza del Sole)

Train from Milan: Milano centrale at 7.10 - arrival in Bellinzona at 9.00 (Eurocity 312)